To accomplish this goal, I have to apply the formative assessment strategies during my smester 7 teaching practicum. These strategies will allow me to assess the students with functional formative assessment, while also providing opportunities for the students to interact, get used to the process, and .improve their learning and motivation