

Healthy habits are the most important factor in life. College students eat a lot of fast food, and need to add more fresh fruits and vegetables to their diet. Getting enough exercise can make them happier, more active and easier to care for. Healthy habits can help them succeed in their classes. Good habits help us live a better life.