 DPS character that particularly makes good use of her Resonance Skill by sending her to Incarnation state, which then increases her DMG modifiers through Forte Circuit, it's recommended that players

 Echo Set ?Updated on January 2, 2025, by Elara Leclair: With the launch of Wuthering Waves' version 2.0 update, Jinhsi receives a long-awaited rerun, along with a stunning new premium skin themed around peach blossoms. Considering, however, that Jinshi doesn't benefit from ATK stat as much as most other DPS characters do, as her scaling is more reliant on Resonance Skill boosts, ultimately, players should aim for a full set of Celestial Light. This weapon not only boosts her Crit Rate, giving players room to focus more on Crit DMG over Crit Rate, especially for sub-stats, but it also increases the Elemental DMG bonus of the wearer and further enhances Resonance Skill DMG after acquiring stacks through Basic ATKs. Remove Ads The best Echo for Jinshi in Wuthering Waves is undoubtedly the 5pc Celestial Light, while also sharing the same main stat priorities with Spectro Rover. However, if players already have a Mourning Aix with a suitable main stat (Crit Rate / Crit DMG) and ideal sub-stats (Crit Rate / Crit DMG Resonance Skill Basic ATK ATK), it is certainly suitable until players can acquire Jue. This allows players to easily swap these weapons between these characters in the Tower of Adversity if they wish to do so. For players looking for 4-star, particularly F2P options, both Broadblade #41 and Waning Redshift will perform similarly, offering slightly higher DMG potential than other 4-star options like Helios Cleaver or Autumnttrace. Considering that Jinhsi will also be using her Intro and Outro skill quite often, as her Unison ability will allow players to not use Concerto energy when Unison is available, this will also allow her to benefit from a 5pc set bonus essentially infinitely if players are able to use character rotations right. For players who haven't obtained her BiS, options such as Jiyan's signature weapon, Verdant Summit, or other DPS-oriented broad blades used by characters like Calcharo or Jiyan
 .work well. Lingering Tunes 2pc: ATK +10%
