

Following the Corona pandemic, Sabic modified their strategy in a way that benefits both the company and its workers. The objective is to foster ongoing learning that enhances employee growth and develops a talent pool with greater competitive potential, as stated in an article by Sabic. All of that is necessary to guarantee the efficient operation of the supply chain.