

i am writing to complain about the problem of wasting water in our neighbourhood. many people leave their taps running when washing dishes or brushing their teeth. some also water their gardens during the hottest part of the day which wastes a lot water