

Summary Making Barter system is a system of direct exchange of goods that was used thousands of years ago. In FOUR sentences, summarise and paraphrase the above passage in answer to the following question: Why wasn't the barter system a very practical one? People's needs for goods rarely coincided; a man needed salt could not find someone selling it for tusks. People used to exchange goods such as grain, salt, cattleetc