

The recommended method for measuring the stature is to position the subject barefoot on a level directly
.against a vertical wall or door