Unwittingly, Peter was speaking for Satan.Satan had purposely tempted Jesus in the wilderness to divert Him from the cross, from fulfilling the grand design of the Father and the Son (Mark 1:12–13).Like Jesus' adversary, Peter was not setting his mind on the things of God His ways, His plans, and His purposes .((Colossians 3:2; Isaiah 55:8–9