The utilization of artificial intelligence within Islamic banking has the potential to significantly improve efficiency and customer satisfaction.Furthermore, there is a risk of excessive reliance on AI systems, which could result in reduced human interaction and potential job displacement.Furthermore, AI-powered chatbots and virtual assistants can provide personalized assistance to customers by offering immediate responses to inquiries and aiding in financial planning based on Islamic principles