Waste Management and segregation is a much-needed process in metro cities and urban areas due to spreading of diseases.If the sensor doesn't activate both the sensor category then the waste will be considered to be a dry waste.