

What are a doctor's duties to themselves, colleagues, patients, and the community? Refer the patient to a more experienced doctor or one with better equipment if needed or requested. Keep the patient's secrets (confidentiality). Explain the illness, its causes, and treatment honestly.