

Limited Liability Company (LLC): Features: An LLC combines the limited liability protection of a corporation with the pass-through taxation of a partnership. Disadvantages: Formalities and costs: LLCs may require more paperwork and fees to establish and maintain compared to sole proprietorships or partnerships.