

Patient care that related to MRI safety All patients undergoing MRI examination must be screened by trained and professional technologist who have enough information about hazardous of MRI to ensure that there is no any ferromagnetic or paramagnetic material (not MR 13 compatible ) which is MR unsafe , this procedure is the most important step before any MRI examination to prevent any hazard or accident inside MRI room and to protect patients and keep them in the safe side , part of patient screening should be done during the scheduling process to make patient ready when the time comes for his examination .(18) An example of safety questionnaire (screening) form taken from online source :(19)

1–Have you had prior surgery or an operation (e.g., arthroscopy, endoscopy, etc.) of any kind?2–Have you had an injury to the eye involving a metallic object or fragment (e.g., metallic slivers, shavings, .–foreign body, etc.) ?3