

duck on a tractor by David Shannon down on the farm duck sometimes got wild ideas one day he decided he could ride a bike so he did then he spotted the tractor I bet I can drive a tractor he said the other animals weren't so Sure but they all said well if he can ride a bike maybe he can drive a tractor too duck climbed on the tractor and looked around he pushed some pedals and wiggled a metal stick but nothing happened then a shiny little piece of metal by the steering wheel caught his eye he pulled it out he pushed it in then he turned it all of a sudden the tractor shook and coughed and rumbled it began to move at first it moved very slowly and it jerked a lot but it was fun duck drove around the barnyard until he got the hang of it then he stopped in front of the other animals climb on everybody shouted duck dog was first he jumped right up next to duck woof said dog but what he thought was work or food to everyone's surprise cow clambered on next said cow but what she thought was this is the silliest thing I've ever done Pig and pig took a seat in the back link said Pig and pig but what they thought was the sure beats walking then came chicken Mouse and goat Rock said chicken but what she thought was said Mouse but what she thought was I can see everything from up here man said goat but what he thought was I'm hungry as the garbage dump have a drive-through window next up were horse and cat cat :jumped up gracefully on to the tractor of course not sO much now said cat but what she thought was I was going to take a nap but this should be very interesting said horse but what he thought was I think I'd rather walk the only one left on the ground was sheep matt said sheep but what she thought was this is too dangerous get on sheep everyone shouted but sheep wouldn't budge so duck started driving away ; without her wait cried sheep don't leave me here all alone she ran after the tractor and took