

It was difficult for Adnan at first to adapt in Toronto because everything there is difficult, the cold weather and the food are strange. He studies English for 4 hours every day, but he cannot speak well, but his teachers and classmates are very friendly. Next week, their class will visit Niagara Falls. He made some friends.