

A very warm welcome to all the teachers and students present in the auditorium. Furthermore, a healthy person is free from the diseases caused by the unclean atmosphere. Thus, he will develop the quality of effectiveness and efficiency in his work. Thus, a person who is clean develops a high intellect. I am here to deliver a speech on Importance of Cleanliness. Cleanliness refers to a state of being clean. Since he is free from diseases, he can be more productive. Also, a clean person is seen as having the quality of spirituality.
