Influential people are those who have the power to affect the ideas, actions, and decisions of others.These persons can shape the world we live in.while others still make a difference in our daily lives such as Prince Muhammad bin SalmanThey can be leaders, activists, artists, scientists, or anyone who has made a significant impact on society.