The COVID-19 pandemic has caused disruption of daily services due to the community-wide mitigation measures taken by many countries.Due to the low likelihood of obtaining a vaccine in the near future, global efforts have vastly focused on social distancing and complete city and state lockdowns in many instances as the