

The Strawberry Festival is an annual event in the city of Riyadh, which was launched in 2018 through a local club, a local charitable club dedicated to improving society, to promote the strawberry crop. Beginning in 1929, the festival will honor the Strawberry King, a champion of the region's agricultural products.