

The Laverne companies are implementing a sustainable approach in Diriyah by establishing a renewed cycle of renewable energy for the garden and supporting employees. This thoughtful strategy not only contributes to environmental sustainability but also aims to revive memories and enhance the overall landscape in Diriyah. It will enhance the interior and exterior environment