

Recognition memory is durable, lasting several weeks, for infants at about 3 months of age.(e.g.. 1
Rovee-Colliers mobile kicking studies in which there is evidence of a form of cued-recall in young
.infants such as sound, rattles).3