

Caitlin Clark gives cheeky response after being excluded from photo by former team-mates. Caitlin Clark has provided an amusing response to a group photo including some of her former team-mates. Her caption read: "#23's BIGGEST fan!! So good seeing my Hawkeye family this weekend." And there was a famous name in the comments as Clark chimed in. The WNBA star joked that her former colleagues should have edited her into the picture. Clark has clearly not forgotten her former team-mates and still shares a strong bond with those she played alongside in her pre-WNBA career. Ex-Iowa Hawkeyes star Gabbie Marshall shared a snap of her alongside Kate Martin and Jada Gyamfi on Monday. Marshall, who is now retired, met up with Martin and Gyamfi when the Hawkeyes beat Virginia Tech Hokies 71-52. Clark averaged 28.4 points, 7.1 rebounds and 8.2 assists per game.