I was trained as an intern in the Al-Nahdi community pharmacy, where I helped the staff dispense prescriptions, tend to patients with minor illnesses, and give trustworthy medical advice.Supplied non-prescription medicines, diagnostic and therapeutic aids, providing advice to customers on effective usage.I observed how to manage a community pharmacy, patient interaction and communication with customers which demonstrated effective communication skills by engaging with diverse patient populations, addressing their needs, and providing clear and concise medication-related information.o .Created lucid and efficient customer service guidelines to boost contentment and pharmacy allegiance

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي