

If the current trends continue, road traffic injuries are predicted to come the fifth leading cause of death . by 2030