

An effective informal assessment of the contribution made by both students and tutors can be done at the end of the PBL sessions when the self-, peer- and tutor-led assessment can take place