

The Tourist Police Department issued 1,672 violations within two months against those who are not committed to precautionary measures against the spread of the Coronavirus in commercial shopping centers and beaches. Brigadier General Muhammad Suhail Al Rashidi, Director of the Criminal Security Sector, affirmed the Abu Dhabi Police's keenness to implement the law and the decisions of the Attorney General regarding the public's commitment to public safety measures and precautionary measures to prevent the Coronavirus, in order to preserve the safety and health of society.