

The intellectual themes :are recurring themes in EECS Design of complex systems Modeling and controlling physical systems Augmenting physical systems with computation Building systems that are robust to uncertainty Intellectual themes are developed in context of a mobile robot