

Structure of the World Trade Organization
The Ministerial Conference
The Ministerial Conference of the WTO meets every two years to make important decisions about existing trade agreements. The Ministerial Conference holds the authority to make decisions on any aspects of all multilateral agreements made under the WTO.
General Council
The General Council comprises the representatives of all member countries and acts as the representative of the Ministerial Conference when it comes to daily operations.