

Real-time cart tracking, digital menus, online ordering, and AI-based food recommendations are the .features of the proposed solution that promise an improved user experience