

The project's goal is to deliver an innovative and accessible solution for mental health care through a .virtual reality application.Stakeholders include patients, therapists/counsellors, and VR developers