

Calcium or Phosphate Additions: Adding materials like lime (calcium) or phosphate fertilizers can reduce the solubility of certain heavy metals by promoting the formation of insoluble metal salts. Iron and Manganese Oxides: These substances can adsorb heavy metals through precipitation, reducing their mobility.