

The Qatar Airways Group adheres to strategies and policies to efficiently manage its financial resources, including raising revenue, improving profitability, and minimizing financial hazards, as was the case during the COVID-19 epidemic when demand for air cargo outstripped demand for commercial aviation.