My name is mohamad omar am originally from syria I left my country because of war ,so I went to Sudan looking for a better chance I graduated from high school in Sudan with 69.9 I enrolled in a university majoring in civil engineering Frankly, I was not satisfied with my major because I always loved artificial intelligence and computer science