

Based on Sarah's journey in the story, it can be inferred that perseverance is crucial in achieving success. Despite her fears, she was able to deliver a compelling presentation and receive enthusiastic applause from her classmates and teacher. Secondly, Sarah sought advice from mentors, consulted with experts, and solicited feedback from classmates. The evidence from the text supports this inference