

Omani littering is a significant environmental issue, primarily due to plastic waste and careless disposal habits. To improve Oman's littering problem, several recommendations include strengthening public awareness programs, improving waste disposal infrastructure, incentivizing responsible disposal, enforcing anti-littering laws, and encouraging eco-friendly substitutes for single-use plastics.