Annual cross-country events are organized throughout Norway	, attracting a great number of participants