

Assessment During Tutorial An effective informal assessment of the contribution made by both students and tutors can be done at the end of the PBL sessions when the self-, peer- and tutor-led assessment can take place. The form is designed to assess the student's attitudes and performance during tutorial sessions.