Sports are very important for everyone which keeps them fit, fine and physical strength.It keeps our hearts stronger and reduces the stress level.You can also be better and free from some diseases.