

My name is Halima, and I am 19 years old. I live in Jeddah, KSA, with my family in a small apartment. My family includes my parents, me, and two sisters, and two brothers, as we sadly lost one of my brothers recently. Life now feels full of responsibilities and challenges, but I always try to stay strong and positive. Right now, I am focused on improving myself and working towards my goals. I am a student in interior design, my dream of starting my own business one day. Every day is a step closer to achieving my dreams, and I feel grateful for my journey so far.
