

Green Sukuk, a financial instrument that aligns with Islamic finance principles, is gaining popularity due to its environmental, social, and governance (ESG) criteria. The future of Green Sukuk looks promising, with potential for significant growth in regions promoting green projects and Islamic finance, such as the UK and Southeast Asia. The issuance volumes of Green Sukuk fluctuate, with peaks and troughs reflecting investor sentiment and economic conditions.