

When you have fears of an animal or insect, it can affect you. When I was younger, I saw my brother bitten by bees. They pollinate the flowers and plants. They are organised, hardworking and social. Next, I decided to watch some videos. Then I searched the internet to get more information. When I did all that, I found out that bees are useful. Bees are cool! I became very scared of them