

Contributed to achieving the goals of the center and the department through: – Implementing the tasks assigned to me with precision and high professionalism, which contributed to ensuring the effectiveness of environmental monitoring operations.– Participating in organizing awareness–raising events and environmental workshops, which contributed to spreading awareness of the importance of conservation .On the environment