Dear Sir/Madam, I am writing to I for the position of Quality Manager?Last year, I obtained a new qualification hen I completed a degree from the Bentham School of Engineering In the last six years, I have learnt many new Skills relating to Japanese production methods and I use them in my everyday work I believe that I am a very strong (R) reference for this post, and I hope you will give me the opportunity to speak to you at an interview My present employer will be very happy to provide you with a B shortlist I look forward to hearing from you.As you can see from my attached CV, I have six years of .experience working as a quality technician in the automotive industry.candidate on your website

lakhasly.com © تم تلخيص النص بواسطة موقع لخصلي