

Hope means that we should never give up when we want to reach our goals and our ambitions. I studied well and tried to be optimistic all the time because I realized that being pessimistic leads to nothing