

A large network of healthcare providers updates its information systems and procedures to reduce
.hospital acquired diseases