

Yes, there appears to be an element of deception in this case. This discrepancy between the actual capacity of the land and the information provided by Ahmed suggests that he may have misled or deceived Ali, the buyer