

Founded in 1923, Orient Exchange has been a pivotal player in the UAE's financial landscape, evolving from a single branch to 35 locations nationwide. The company's operations are meticulously regulated, ensuring consumer protection and fostering a conducive environment for its prominent role in the UAE's exchange market. This extensive network assists migrants in sending their earnings to support family members in their home countries, creating joy for both the senders and receiver. With a license granted by the Central Bank of the UAE as an Exchange House, Orient Exchange facilitates foreign currency exchange and international money transfers. Millions of satisfied customers in the UAE have come to appreciate Orient Exchange's services, with branches spanning across four emirates. Responding to the market needs of the early 20th century, it filled a void in the absence of banks. Over four generations, Orient Exchange has been dedicated to meeting the financial needs of both employees and customers.
