

Thank you for your email regarding the ventilation requirements for the C-mill ground floor. The area is going to be converted into an air-conditioned environment which will make the installation of exhaust fans unsuitable. We appreciate your concern for ensuring proper airflow, especially given the storage of chemicals in the area. Thank you for your understanding and support in this matter. Best regards