

The fort contains circular bastions and towers. The largest tower is located in the northern corner and has a diameter of about 12.7 m in its upper part at the roof