

Site and Setting This study will be conducted at the Optometry Laboratory of An-Najah National University. Participants will be seated at a standardized distance from the visual acuity chart, and all assessments will be carried out using the same equipment and setup to ensure consistency across all conditions.